HC Gilje works with realtime environments, installations, live performance, set design and singlechannel video.

Gilje has presented his work through different channels throughout the world: in concert-venues, theatre and cinema venues, galleries, festivals and through several international dvd releases, including 242.pilots live in Bruxelles on New York label Carpark and Cityscapes on Paris-label Lowave.

He was a member of the video-impro trio 242.pilots, and was also the visual motor of kreutzerkompani.

In october 2006 Gilje started a 3 year position as a research fellow at Bergen National Academy of the Arts, Norway, exploring how audiovisual technology can be used to transform, create, expand, amplify and interpret physical spaces.

Born 1969 in Kongsberg. Educated at the intermedia department of Kunstakademiet in Trondheim 95-99.

242.pilots

242.pilots is a live video improvisation ensemble consisting of HC Gilje (Norway), Kurt Ralske (US) and Lukasz Lysakowski (Poland). Using laptop computers and their own custom software, 242.pilots explore the outer fringes of experimental cinema. Since their inception in 2001, 242.pilots have performed at museums, galleries and theaters throughout Europe, Canada, and USA.
